'have life and have it to the full'

Intent

Prayer is the raising of the mind and heart to God. It expresses the universal human search for God and our response in faith to God's self-revelation. Christian prayer is a living relationship with God in, with, and through Jesus Christ - an encounter that takes place in the quiet intimacy of each person's heart (R.E.D).

At Our Lady's Catholic Primary School, we aim for all pupils to:

- develop a living relationship with God in, with, and through Jesus Christ
- feel nourished and strengthened through prayer
- understand the different forms of prayer, including blessing, petition, intercession, thanksgiving and praise
- learn and grow in confidence with the key prayers of the Catholic Church

Implementation

At Our Lady's, we aim to help our children sustain and deepen their natural capacity for prayer. We teach that prayer is a way of building our relationship with God: a conversation where we speak and also listen. Every child's home life and personal experiences differ, and therefore every child's prayer will be unique. To help pupils develop their own comfortable and authentic way of praying, they are introduced to a wide variety of prayer styles:

- praying the Psalms
- traditional prayer
- repetitive prayer
- meditation
- hymns
- litanies
- prayer Services and the Liturgy
- celebrations
- bodily prayer – raising hands, bowing, genuflecting
- prayer of the heart – stillness and silence
- gestures – sign of the cross, sign of peace
- reflective music
- praise and worship
- scripture
- contemplations
- use of visual images

'have life and have it to the full'

Daily Prayers

Each day begins with a short time of prayer; either in a whole-school assembly or in classrooms.

Each class says or sings the Grace Before Meals.

At the end the day, each class ends the school day with the Examen and an End of School Day Prayer.

Prayer areas

The school hall has a central prayer area used for weekly Collective Worship and the school's mission is clearly displayed for all to see. This follows the Gospel reading shared each Monday.

A dedicated pupil prayer area is available for spontaneous prayer or for shared prayer, particularly during the months of May and October when children gather to pray the Rosary.

Displays throughout the school allow children to interact with and reflect upon the Church's liturgical year, Bible stories and themes from the RE curriculum.

Each classroom has its own prayer table or focus area, reflecting RE topics, School Virtues, or the Church's Liturgical Season.

Prayers

Pupils are given opportunities to use both informal and formal prayers.

- Informal prayer (thanking, praising, asking, saying sorry) is built naturally into lessons and classroom prayer opportunities.
- Formal, traditional prayers of the Church are introduced gradually and progressively across the school.

Every pupil from Reception to Year 6 receives a Prayer Book which accompanies them throughout their time at Our Lady's. Pupils use their prayer books to learn, reflect, and deepen their personal prayer life.

Appendix with the prayers is added to the end of this policy.

Liturgy

Pupils attend Our Lady Queen of the Martyrs, our parish church, to celebrate Mass with our parishioners, to deepen their understanding of the Eucharist. Each class attends Parish Mass on a rota basis. The whole school attends Mass on Holy Days of Obligation.

Impact

Pupils at Our Lady's understand that prayer is a meaningful way to encounter the living God. They recognise that prayer enriches their spiritual lives and provides moments to say sorry, to give thanks, and to seek help. By the time they leave our school, pupils know the key prayers of the Catholic Church and have the confidence to speak to God in times of need.

I Confess

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

'have life and have it to the full'

The Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

'have life and have it to the full'

The Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory.

Lord God, heavenly King,

O God almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son.

Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father; you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;

you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One.

you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,

Jesus Christ,

with the Holy Spirit

in the Glory of God the Father

Amen.

Hail Holy Queen

Hail, holy Queen, mother of mercy, hail our life, our sweetness, and our hope.

To you we do cry,

poor banished children of Eve.

To thee we do send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears.

turn then, most gracious advocate,
thine eyes of mercy towards us;
and after this our exile

show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

V. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help,

or sought thy intercession was left unaided.

Inspired with this confidence,

I fly to thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother;

to thee do I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful.

O Mother of the Word Incarnate,

despise not my petitions,

but in thy mercy hear and answer me.

Amen.

'have life and have it to the full'

The Angelus

This can be said morning, noon and night – but especially at noon. It reminds us that God became man to save us.

V. The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary,

R. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary...

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord.

R. Be it done unto me according to Your Word.

Hail Mary...

V. And the Word was made flesh,

R. And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary...

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray:

Pour forth, we beseech You, O Lord, your Grace into our hearts; that we, to whom the Incarnation of Christ, as we have known the incarnation of Christ, your Son, was made known by the message of an Angel, may by His passion and cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection, through the same Christ, our Lord.

Amen.
